Total	$91,760,100	$89,753,200	$87,953,300	$2,006,900	2.2%

- 3% is budgeted for merit increases compared to the national average of 3.85%, OPERS at 6.5% and SERS at 4%
- 14 positions have been eliminated in the proposed budget, primarily due to the child care center closure and not replacing open positions due to associate separations and retirements
- All open positions are evaluated, and duties repurposed among existing associates when possible, reducing number of associates
- Careful balance required; ability of recruiting replacements and retaining professional staff proves challenging in current tight labor market and STRS Ohio-specific conditions
- Associate health insurance is relatively flat due to plan experience

Reduction in Number of Associates; Down 14 Positions

- STRS Ohio has reduced 250 positions since 2002
- Reduction in number of associates cannot continue in perpetuity
